1. About vMAPs Super

vMAPs Super allows superannuation and pension members to access a range of investments across multiple asset classes via its investment in the Ventura Managed Account Portfolios ARSN 601 085 410 (referred to throughout the PDS as vMAPs, the Scheme or Managed Account), a registered managed investment scheme of which Ventura Investment Management Limited (Ventura) is the Responsible Entity.

vMAPs provides investors with a diversified investment portfolio via a comprehensive range of professionally managed Investment Models. These models may include listed investments such as shares, exchange traded funds (ETFs), listed investment companies (LICs) and Australian Real Estate Investment Trusts (AREITs), as well as managed funds.

Your adviser can help you select the right mix of Investment Model(s) for your personal circumstances. You then enjoy the benefits of full administration of your investment portfolio including automatic updates when changes are made by the Model Managers while you and your financial adviser monitor your portfolio online through comprehensive and transparent reporting of your individual investments.

Your investment in vMAPs is held by the Trustee, Diversa Trustees Limited, for you. The Trustee specialises in superannuation trustee services and is regulated by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA).

The Trustee is required to disclose certain Trustee and vMAPs Super information and documentation on a website. Accordingly, the Trustee's website (www.diversa.com.au/trustee) contains the required information and documentation. The information and documentation includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- The Trust Deed, the Product Disclosure Statement, the most recent Annual Report and the names of each material outsourced service provider to vMAPs Super.

Your investment in vMAPs is covered by the Ventura Managed Account Portfolios PDS which is available from www.venturaFM.com.au.

vMAPs Super has the following account types:

Accumulation Account

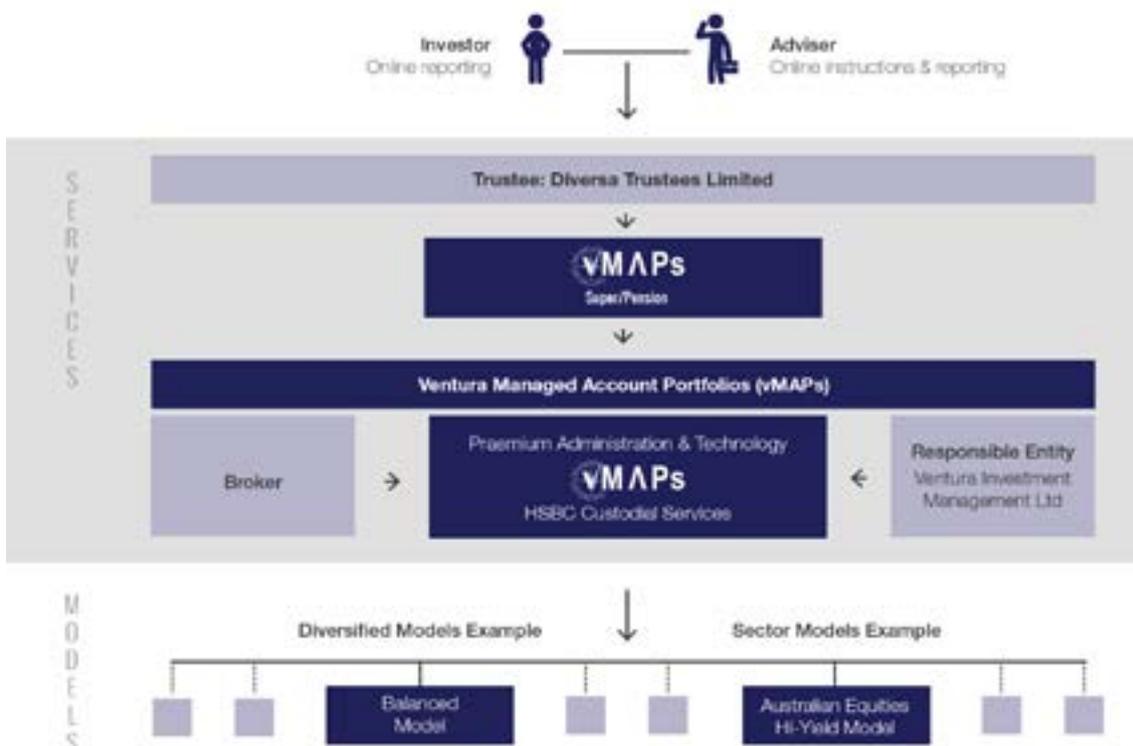

The Accumulation Account is designed to provide you with a means to save for your retirement by accepting a wide range of contribution types and rollovers and providing access to insurance cover through a number of insurers. Refer to the vMAPs Super Investment Model Menu for a list of current insurance providers.

Transition to Retirement Pension Account

The Transition to Retirement Pension Account is designed to provide you with a tax-effective income when you have reached your preservation age but wish to continue to work either full or part time.

Account Based Pension Account

The Account Based Pension Account is designed to provide you with a regular income after you retire for as long as you have an account balance. It enables you to keep part or all of your superannuation benefit with the Fund and receive an income stream that is subject to little or no tax.

2. How super works

Contributions

Superannuation is a means of saving for your retirement, which is, in part, compulsory. Compulsory contributions (i.e. employer contributions) to satisfy Superannuation Guarantee rules can usually be paid to a super fund of your choice. Contributions can only be made to the Accumulation Account in vMAPs Super.

Other types of contributions you can make include:

- Personal contributions from before-tax income ('Salary Sacrifice' contributions)
- Personal contributions from after-tax income
- Co-contributions made by the government
- Spouse contributions
- Low income superannuation contribution (subject to eligibility).

You can also transfer your super from your existing fund. Consolidating your super into one fund may help minimise fees.

There are limits that are set by the government regarding how much you can contribute to your superannuation. These limits can depend upon a number of factors such as your age, your employment status and your level of income.

The government allows a number of tax concessions that are unique to the superannuation environment. These tax concessions typically allow your super to grow more quickly than other types of investments. You can find further information at www.ato.gov.au or www.moneysmart.com.au.

Withdrawals

There are limitations on withdrawals from superannuation. Specific conditions must be satisfied in order to access your benefits in superannuation. In most cases you will access your benefits when you reach your preservation age. If you were born after 1 July 1960 and before 1 July 1964 your preservation age will be between 55 and 60. For those born after 1 July 1964 the preservation age is 60.

When you have reached your preservation age and have retired you can access your super as a lump sum or receive a regular income stream through an Account Based Pension Account. If you have reached preservation age but have not yet retired you may still be able to receive a regular income stream by establishing a Transition to Retirement Pension Account. There are other special circumstances when you can access your super.

You should read the important information about how super works before making a decision. Go to the 'vMAPs Super Additional Information Booklet' available at www.venturaFM.com.au.

The material relating to how super works may change between the time you read this Statement and the day you become a member of vMAPs Super.

4. Risks of super

Investment risks

It is important to note that all investments carry risk and your investment (capital and return) is not guaranteed. vMAPs Super offers members a wide range of asset classes from which to choose enabling you to invest in assets such as Australian securities, international securities, cash, property and fixed interest. Different strategies carry different levels of risk, depending on the assets that make up the strategy. The vMAPs Super Investment Model Menu indicates the risk level of each Investment Model based on the potential for a negative return over a specified period.

Investments may be impacted by your portfolio's diversification, movements in interest rates and exchange rates, inflation, market movements and liquidity. The level of risk which you are comfortable with will depend on your age, your investment timeframe, other investments you may have outside of superannuation and your general risk tolerance.

Investors should note that investment options with the highest long-term returns may also have the highest risk of negative returns over a shorter time period.

You should understand that:

- The value of your investments will go up and down.
- The returns you receive on your investments will vary, and past returns are not indicative of future returns.
- Returns are not guaranteed and negative returns may result in a reduction in your account balance.
- The amount of your future superannuation savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to provide adequately for your retirement.
- Superannuation laws may change in the future.

Specific risks

Scheme risk: There are risks particular to investing in the Scheme including that the Scheme could be terminated, fees and charges could change, Ventura Investment Management Limited could be replaced as Responsible Entity, Model Managers may be changed and Investment Models could be closed or change.

Portfolio investment risk: Some Investment Models may only hold a small number of listed investments compared to the relevant benchmark index for that Investment Model. The performance of Investment Models holding a concentrated portfolio of listed investments is likely to be more volatile than its benchmark index across all investment timeframes.

The Investment Model profiles in the vMAPs Super Investment Model Menu provide general guidance on the types of listed investments likely to be contained in each Investment Model.

General Risks

In addition to the risks outlined above there could be further risks associated with:

Market risk: The market as a whole could fall in value. Economic, technological, political or legislative conditions and market sentiment can change, which can result in changes in the value of investments. Although securities have historically offered higher long-term returns than certain other asset classes, returns from securities may be volatile and performance may be poor over the short and / or medium term.

Liquidity risk: A portfolio could experience difficulty in realising investments. For instance, securities in smaller capitalised companies may periodically (especially in falling markets) become less liquid and not be able to be sold. Managed funds may suspend redemptions where underlying investments cannot be sold quickly enough to provide cash to meet redemption requests.

Counter party risk: The service providers engaged by the Trustee may not perform their obligations and this may affect the services offered to you.

Derivative risk: Currency hedging activity will primarily be by way of forward contracts, but options and other derivatives may also be used.

Investment manager risk: Any investment manager may underperform at any stage of an investment cycle. Managers may lose key people or manage investments or risk poorly. A manager may lose its licence to operate or become unable to perform its duties.

The material relating to the risks of super may change between the time you read this Statement and the day you become a member of vMAPs Super.

You should read the important information about the risk level of each Investment Model before making a decision. Go to the 'vMAPs Super Investment Model Menu' available at www.venturaFM.com.au.

5. How we invest your money

! Warning! When choosing a strategy in which to invest, a person must consider:
 (a) the likely investment return;
 (b) the risk; and
 (c) the person's investment time frame.

vMAPs Super invests solely in the Ventura Managed Account Portfolios which may make available the following asset types through a diverse range of Investment Models:

- Australian securities
- International securities
- Property
- Alternative
- Ethical
- Diversified
- Fixed income
- Cash.

In consultation with your financial adviser, you can construct a unique portfolio that is tailored to your individual objectives from a diverse range of Investment Models which are outlined in the vMAPs Super Investment Model Menu.

You can switch your investment between Investment Models (or change the combination of Investment Models) at any time by making a request via your financial adviser. When a switch is requested, trades will be executed so your investment portfolio reflects your newly selected Investment Model(s). Transaction costs such as brokerage fees may apply.

In the next column is an example of an investment option available in vMAPs Super. This investment option is suitable for members whose main objective is to maintain stable returns. They are prepared to accept a medium risk of capital loss to achieve this objective.

Unless they apply to a specific Investment Model neither labour standards, nor environmental, social or ethical considerations are taken into account in the selection, retention or realisation of investments relating to vMAPs Super.

We cannot accept an application without an investment election. Failure to make an investment choice or devise a suitable investment strategy may result in a reduction of market returns and the amount of your future superannuation savings. This may not be enough to provide adequately for your retirement.

6. Fees and costs

Did you know?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your Fund balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better investor services justify higher fees and costs.

Your employer may be able to negotiate to pay lower administration fees. Ask the Fund or your financial adviser.

To find out more

If you would like to find out more or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website, www.moneysmart.gov.au, has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

You should read the important information about how we invest your money before making a decision. Go to the vMAPs Super Additional Information Booklet and the vMAPs Super Investment Model Menu available at www.venturaFM.com.au.

The material relating to how we invest your money may change between the time you read this Statement and the day you become a member of vMAPs Super.

Fees and costs are paid directly from your account or deducted from investment returns. All fees and costs shown include GST unless otherwise stated.

The information in the template can be used to compare costs between different super products.

! Warning! Additional fees, as detailed below, may be charged by your financial adviser or their Licensee. You should consult the Statement of Advice that your adviser gives you in order to understand these fees. The amount of these fees may be negotiated with your financial adviser.

Adviser Establishment Fee

The Adviser Establishment Fee is set as a dollar fee and is deducted from the amount invested to establish your Account and paid to your financial adviser as agreed between you and your Appointed Financial Adviser. As there is currently no maximum Adviser Establishment Fee the Trustee has the discretion to reduce or reject the Adviser Establishment Fee if it is deemed unreasonable.

Ongoing Adviser Fee

If you wish, you can have amounts deducted from your Account to pay fees to your financial adviser as agreed between you and your Appointed Financial Adviser. As there is currently no maximum Ongoing Adviser Fee the Trustee has the discretion to reduce or reject the Ongoing Adviser Fee if it is deemed unreasonable. For fixed dollar fees, you may also agree with your Adviser to automatically index this fee in line with the annual change in the Consumer Price Index (CPI) or a fixed percentage up to 5% p.a.

Adviser Research Fee

An Adviser Research Fee may be payable to your Appointed Financial Adviser for the provision of research which is conducted by them and/or third party contractors as part of the provision of financial product advice to you. The amount deducted from your Account to a maximum of 2.2% p.a. or agreed fixed dollar amount p.a. Account. This fee may be charged multiple times in a financial year up to an aggregate of $11,000 p.a. (or higher with approval from the Trustee) and is agreed between you and your adviser.

Operational Risk Reserve Levy

The Federal Government as part of its Stronger Super reforms introduced a requirement for funds to establish and maintain an Operational Risk Reserve (ORR) to specifically address potential losses arising from operational risks that may affect the Funds' business operations.

An operational risk is the risk that a superannuation fund may suffer loss due to inadequate or failed internal processes, people and systems, or from external events. The ORR may be drawn upon to assist in compensating members or the Fund in the event of an operational risk having materialised.

The Operational Risk Reserve Levy on members of 0.06% per annum will assist in maintaining the ORR.

Expense recovery

We are entitled to be reimbursed to recover fund expenses such as audit, legal, tax consulting fees, expenses and liabilities relating to the management and operation of the Fund. We expect to recover between $30 and $60 per Account depending on actual expenses incurred in the financial year.

Other fees and costs

Family law charges

The Fund will impose charges in cases where a request for information to flag or to pay out a Family Law benefit is received. Where the Trustee incurs legal expenses in responding to matters arising from "flagging" or splitting your benefits, these expenses may be deducted from your Account.

- Request for information by member – $55
- Implement an Order to split or flag an interest or pay out a Family Law benefit – $275

Transaction costs for listed investments

Brokerage will be charged at wholesale brokerage rates of 0.055% (where netting applies it may reduce this fee).

- A settlement fee of $1.21 per transaction applies in addition to brokerage.
- A managed fund settlement fee of $27.50 may be charged and is pro-rated across all vMAPs Accounts trading in each managed fund on any given day.

Performance Fees

The Responsible Entity may come to an arrangement with certain Model Manager(s) whereby Performance Fees may become payable. As at the date of this PDS there is currently no intention to charge performance fees. Please refer to the vMAPs Super Investment Model Menu for additional information.

Indirect cost ratio - investment options

The indirect costs for managed funds and ETFs are taken into account in the unit price of the investment. The indirect cost varies and depends on the investments you select. Refer to the disclosure document for the managed fund or ETF.

Indirect cost ratio - Cash Administration Fee

To ensure greater returns to members, the Responsible Entity of the Scheme has entered into an arrangement with ANZ to deposit a portion of your Scheme cash account in an omnibus account with ANZ, which attracts a higher interest rate on your cash holdings. The Cash Administration Fee is the fee the Responsible Entity charges for the additional tasks associated with managing your cash holdings in this way in the Scheme, including establishing and allocating the cash accounts and giving instructions (including deposits and withdrawals).

7. How super is taxed

In Australia, superannuation may be taxed at three distinct phases:

- When contributions are made to a superannuation fund;
- On earnings that are generated for or by the superannuation fund; and
- When withdrawals are made from the superannuation fund.

Contributions to your superannuation¹

| Type of contribution | Comments | Tax rate |
|--|--|--|
| Concessional (Before-tax contributions, e.g. employer contributions, salary sacrifice contributions, personal concessional contributions) | The concessional contributions cap is $25,000. | 15% If the contributions cap is exceeded, the rate is your marginal rate plus Medicare Levy. |
| Non-Concessional (After-tax contributions, e.g. personal contributions, spouse contributions) | For those under 75 years of age, the maximum per financial year is $100,000 or $300,000 over a three year period if you are under 65 years of age, depending on your total superannuation balance. | Nil If the contributions cap is exceeded, the rate is the top marginal rate plus Medicare Levy. |

1. This information relates to the financial year 1 July 2017 to 30 June 2018. To access up to date information please refer to www.ato.gov.au.

Tax on Fund earnings

The earnings in the Fund for accumulation and transition to retirement member accounts will be taxed at a maximum rate of 15%, however the rate may be lower than the maximum rate due to tax credits or other tax rebates. Currently no tax applies to earnings on Account Based Pension accounts.

8. Insurance in your super

Accumulation account holders can apply for insurance cover through the Fund from a number of insurers that we have relationships with. This will enable you to choose from a variety of insurers to suit your needs. You can have your insurance premiums paid directly through your vMAPs Super Account if you apply for insurance through these providers. For a full list of approved insurers and products see the vMAPs Super Investment Model Menu.

Insurance cover is not automatic. You must apply for cover directly with the insurer. The types of cover that are typically available include:

- Death
- Total and permanent disability
- Income protection

Cooling off period

A 14-day cooling off period applies for applicants to vMAPs Super. During this time, you can cancel your Account by advising us in writing at the above address.

The 14-day cooling off period commences from the earlier of the date you receive confirmation of your investment in vMAPs Super or five days from the date of joining vMAPs Super, in which you may cancel your membership and obtain a refund of any contributions made.

If your membership is cancelled during this period, no fees or costs will be incurred. However, the amount repaid may be adjusted to take account of any increase or decrease in the investment value and any tax payable on contributions received. If any part of the contributions are subject to preservation requirements, these cannot be refunded and must be rolled over to another complying superannuation entity or retirement savings account. If the nomination by you cannot be effected, this may result in benefits being transferred to an eligible rollover fund.
