COMMENTARY

Overview

- Major global equity markets continued their climb, with stocks related to artificial intelligence (AI) continuing to lead the way.
- Some emerging risks weighed on the local market, producing negative returns for the quarter.
- Inflation remains above RBA's target band with an expectation that rate cuts will now come later and be shallower than previously expected

- Consumer Discretionary (-1.63%) and Materials (-3.17%) struggled over the quarter but overall have performed positively for the year at 17.66%, 16.40%, +11.02%, 9.44% respectively.
- Consumer Staples lagged over the quarter and last 12 months returning 0.40% and 2.79%

Improving news on the global economy caused yields to inch higher, with US 10-year bond yields rising over the quarter from 4.21 to 4.41% providing a headwind for fixed income asset classes. Key 10-year treasury yields in local currency terms (30 June 2024): Australia: 4.36%.

Global property & infrastructure:

Domestic listed property (-5.66%) produced negative returns over the quarter alongside global property (-1.80%) whilst the 12-month number remained positive at +23.79% and +4.45% respectively.

Morningstar's Investment Approach

Morningstar's disciplined investment approach delivers independent, cost effective and holistic solutions for our clients – helping them reach their financial goals. This long-term, valuation driven approach is underpinned by an emphasis on preserving capital and undertaking meticulous comprehensive fundamental analysis of global asset classes and securities.

Portfolio Construction Process

When building diversified portfolios to achieve long-term real returns (after fees and taxes), a dynamic approach to asset allocation improves the outcome for investors. A total-portfolio-perspective approach that seeks to adjust the portfolio when the reward for risk changes, and measures risk in a more meaningful way to preserve capital for investors, is expected to provide a more stable and improved path to wealth accumulation. This approach is often contrarian to market consensus with patience and discipline provides significant investment opportunities.

Security Selection

Buying shares of superior businesses and allowing them to compound over time is the surest way to create wealth in the stock market. The long-term fundamentals of businesses, such as cash flow, competition, economic cycles, and stewardship, are the primary focus because history has shown that market sentiment is fleeting, momentum can quickly reverse, and the herd is sometimes a dangerous crowd. Occasionally, this approach causes our investment models to appear out of step, but willingness to be contrarian is an important source of outperformance.
